SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

Mr. José Aurelio Gay is a former elite-standard Spanish soccer player with great experience in different national and international competitions: League, Cup, Europa League, U20 World Championships, etc.

As a coach he is characterized by a good team management, with ability to deal and perform under difficult situations. He always tries to get the most from his players, always showing respect for them. His aim is to convince the players rather than making them obedient. He tries to develop an intelligent hard-working atmosphere in the dressing room. He is used to teamwork and holds good communication and social abilities.
